

Language and Communication for Students with Autism in the Mainstream Classroom : 2 Day Seminar, Primary & Post Primary

Registration: 8.45 AM

Seminar begins: 9.15 AM

Seminar concludes : 3.30 PM

Course Description

This is a two day course designed to empower teachers with the knowledge of

- how language is typically acquired
- the differences in how children with autism acquire language
- the way in which language proficiency impacts on learning and
- which components of language are important to consider in the classroom

The Presenter is Ms. Pamela Raftery, Speech and Language Therapist, Arc Speech and Language Clinic.

Anticipated Outcomes

Participants will:

- will be aware of the dynamics of communication
- will feel confident in formulating and implementing communication goals for students

Course Outline and Content

The course provides teachers with the knowledge of how language is typically acquired, the differences in how children with autism acquire language, how language proficiency impacts on learning and which components of language are important to consider in the classroom.

The course also provides practical strategies for use with early communicators such as:

- Useful strategies for enhancing communication drawn from evidence based programmes such as “Talkability” www.hanen.org
- Practical ideas for teaching language concepts in the classroom
- Guidance in sourcing appropriate language resources for use in the classroom
- An overview of parent programmes/resources that would be helpful to parents

Information for Applicants

The course is open to

- Teachers working in classes for student(s) with Autism in a mainstream setting
- Teachers in special schools who are currently working with student(s) with Autism
- Full-time Special Education Teachers who are currently working with student(s) with Autism
- Participants will require permission from the Board of Management to attend. Typically, substitution for this seminar will only be allowed to classroom teachers with primary responsibility for students with a special educational need and if it is deemed absolutely essential by the Principal
- Typically substitution will only be allocated to non - substitute teachers
- Payment is not available to teachers in a substitute capacity

Refreshments and lunch will be provided.

Source URL: <http://www.sess.ie/node/3120>